Complaints and Appeals Procedure

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, James Brindley School encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by raising the concern or complaint in person, by telephone, email or in writing to the head of centre, head of curriculum or exams department..

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to Matt Rogers (Examinations Officer). Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 10 days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must request and return a completed complaint and appeals form from the exams department within 7 days of issue. This can be sent via email or post..

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of Centre (Principal) will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report in the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within 20 days.

Appeals

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must request and return a completed complaint and appeals form from the exams department within 7 days of issue. This can be sent via email or post..

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 10 days.

The appeal will be referred to The Chair of Trustees.

It will be the responsibility of The Chair of Trustees or Board will inform the appellant of the final conclusion in due course. to inform the appellant of the final conclusion.
