Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, James Brindley Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- phoning or speaking in person or emailing the exam officer or any member of SLT.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- any member of SLT or the Exam Officer. Any complaint related to exams will be dealt with in line with the general James Brindley Academy Complaints policy, and anyone making a complaint will be directed to the general Complaints Policy. Complaints related to exams will be kept on a separate log managed by the Exam Officer.

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- Email or write to any member of SLT or the Exam Officer at exams@jamesbrindley.org.uk

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Principal will further investigate or appoint a member of SLT to investigate the complaint and report on findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 2 working weeks. Investigation of any complaint made during holiday time will be put on hold until term time resumes.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- follow James Brindley Academy's internal appeals policy.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days

The appeal will be referred to:

- The Principal of James Brindley Academy.

It will be the responsibility of SLT to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
